

YESHIVAS MAHARIT D'SATMAR

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission to Yeshivas Maharit D'Satmar is open to all qualified applicants who are interested in pursuing the Yeshiva's rigorous and challenging academic program. Acceptance to Yeshivas Maharit D'Satmar is based on a number of factors. The applicant must be a High School graduate with the following minimum academic background. Bible: a completion of the Pentateuch and its commentaries. Talmud: a minimum completion of 150 folios. Legal Codes: Competence in Halacha (laws) and Minhagim (customs) of the laws in Orach Chaim and a personal commitment to keep them. The applicant's previous academic performance in these areas as well as his potential for successful integration into the Yeshiva will be taken into consideration. A recommendation from the applicant's previous Rosh Yeshiva is not required but will generally be beneficial.

The applicant for admission must first schedule an interview with the Rosh Yeshiva or the Rosh Kollel. At the time of the interview, the applicant will be orally examined to determine his level of Talmudic scholarship and the potential for growth in the academic program. The applicant may be asked for an oral reference from a member of the academic community to determine his scholastic ability and quality of character. Upon acceptance, the student will be assigned a level that best reflects his previous work as applied to Yeshivas Maharit D'Satmar's program.

In order to initiate the admissions process and schedule an interview by the Hanhala, applicants should contact the Rosh Yeshiva or the Rosh Kollel either at home or in the Yeshiva:
